The Convention Hand-Book is very convenient at Bee-Conventions. It contains a Simple Manual of Parliamentary Law and Rules of Order for Local Bee-Conventions; Constitution and By-Laws for a Local Society; Programme for a Convention, with Subjects for Discussion. In addition to this, there are about 50 blank pages, to make notes upon, or to write out questions, as they may come to mind. They are nicely bound in cloth, and are of the right size for the pocket. We will present a copy for one new subscription to the BEE JOURNAL (with $1.00 to pay for the same), or 2 subscribers to the HOME JOURNAL may be sent instead of one for the BEE JOURNAL.

Clubs of 5 New Subscriptions for $4.00 to any addresses. Ten for $7.50.

ADVERTISING RATES.

20 cents per line of Space, each insertion.

No Advertisement inserted for less than $1.00.

A line of this type will admit about eight words.
ONE INCH will contain TWELVE lines.

Editorial Notices, 50 cents per line.

Special Notices, 30 cents per line.

Transient Advertisements must be paid for IN ADVANCE.

DISCOUNTS:

On 10 lines, or more, 4 times, 10%; 8 times, 15%; 13 times, 20%; 26 times, 30%; 52 times, 40%.

On 20 lines, or more, 4 times, 15%; 8 times, 20%; 13 times, 25%; 26 times, 40%; 52 times, 50%.

On 30 lines, or more, 4 times, 20%; 8 times, 25%; 13 times, 30%; 26 times, 50%; 52 times, 60%.

On larger Advertisements, discounts will be stated, upon application.

Advertisements intended for next week must reach this office by Saturday of this week.

ALFRED H. NEWMAN,

BUSINESS MANAGER.

Special Notices.

☞ Subscribers who do not receive their papers promptly, should notify us at once.

☞ Send us one new subscription, with $1.00, and we will present you with a nice Pocket Dictionary.

☞ The date on the wrapper-label of this paper indicates the end of the month to which you have paid. If that is past, please send us a dollar to pay for another year.

☞ Systematic work in the Apiary will pay. Use the Apiary Register. It costs:

For 50 colonies (120 pages) .....	$1 00
" 100 colonies (220 pages) .....	1 25
" 200 colonies (420 pages) .....	1 50

☞ As there is another firm of "Newman & Son" in this city, our letters sometimes get mixed. Please write American Bee Journal on the corner of your envelopes to save confusion and delay.

When Writing a letter be sure to sign it. Too often we get a letter with the name of the post-office, but no County or State. One such came recently, and we looked into the Postal Guide and found there were places by that name in 13 States. That order for goods will have to wait until another letter comes to give the proper address. Be sure to stamp your letter, or it may go to the dead letter office.

The Nebraska State Fair will be held at Lincoln from Sept. 4 to 11, 1891. Mr. E. Whitcomb, of Friend, Neb., is the Superintendent. Apiarian premiums amount to $237.50.

The Honey-Bee: Its Natural History, Anatomy, and Physiology. By T. W. Cowan, editor of the British Bee Journal, illustrated with 72 figures and 136 illustrations. $1.00. For sale at this office.

A Hummer—that is what Field and Farm calls the AMERICAN BEE JOURNAL.

Have your honey extractor, palls, cans and kegs ready for the honey flow?

We Club the American Bee Journal and the Illustrated Home Journal, one year for $1.35. Both of these and Gleanings in Bee Culture, for one year, for $2.15.

☞ The sewing machine I got of you still gives excellent satisfaction—W. J. PATTERSON, Sullivan, Ills.

Convention Notices.

☞ The Rock River Bee-Keepers' Association will meet at Sterling, Ills., on Thursday, Aug. 6, 1891. J. M. BURCH, Sec., Morrison, Ills.

☞ The ninth annual meeting of the Susquehanna County, Bee-Keepers' Association will be held on Thursday, Sept. 3, at South Montrose, Pa. H. M. SEELEY, Sec., Harford, Pa.

If you have a desire to know how to have Queens fertilized in upper stories, while the old Queen is still laying below—how you may safely introduce any Queen, at any time of the year when bees can fly—all about the different races of bees—all about shipping Queens, queen-cages, candy for queen-cages, etc.—all about forming nuclei, multiplying or uniting bees, or weak colonies, etc.; or, in fact, everything about the queen-business which you may want to know, send for "Doolittle's Scientific Queen-Rearing;" a book of 170 pages, which is nicely bound in cloth, and is as interesting as a story. Price, $1.00. For sale at this office.

Supply Dealers should write to us for wholesale terms and cut for Hastings' Perfection Feeders.

Red Labels are quite attractive for Pails which hold from 1 to 10 lbs. of honey. Price, $1.00 per hundred, with name and address printed. Sample free.

A Nice Pocket Dictionary will be given as a premium for only one new subscriber to this JOURNAL, with $1.00. It is a splendid little Dictionary—just right for the pocket. Price, 25 cents.

Please send us the names of your neighbors who keep bees, and we will send them sample copies of the BEE JOURNAL. Then please call upon them and get them to subscribe with you.

Binders made especially for the BEE JOURNAL for 1891 are now ready for delivery, at 50 cents each, including postage. Be sure to use a Binder to keep your numbers of 1890 for reference. Binders for 1890 only cost 60 cents, and it will pay you to use them, if you do not get the volumes otherwise bound.

When talking about Bees to your friend or neighbor, you will oblige us by commending the BEE JOURNAL to him, and taking his subscription to send with your renewal. For this work we will present you with a copy of the Convention Hand-Book, by mail, postpaid. It sells at 50 cents.

It is a Prize in Itself.—I have just seen the ILLUSTRATED HOME JOURNAL for June, with the Rebus and offer of prizes for its solution. As the paper, at 50 cents a year, is a prize in itself for the amount, I take pleasure in enclosing it, and if my answer to the Rebus is correct, you can place me as a contestant for the prize.

H. E. LAING.

Chicago, Ills.

The Union or Family Scale has been received, and I am much pleased with it.

W. H. KIMBALL.

Davenport, Iowa.

Supply Dealers desiring to sell our book, "Bees and Honey," should write for terms.

We send both the Home Journal and Bee Journal for one year, for $1.35.

Very Well Pleased.—The Sewing Machine and Scales are received in good order, and I am well pleased with them. They do good work. The sewing machine is ornamental as well as useful. The scales are very handy for family use.—G. RUFF, Burlington, Iowa.

Bee-Keeping for Profit, by Dr. G. L. Tinker, is a new 50-page pamphlet, which details fully the author's new system of bee-management in producing comb and extracted-honey, and the construction of the hive best adapted to it—his "Nonpareil." The book can be had at this office for 25c.

Calvert's No. 1 Phenol, mentioned in Cheshire's Pamphlet on pages 16 and 17, as a cure for foul-brood, can be procured at this office at 25 cents per ounce, by express.

HONEY AND BEESWAX MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 19.—New crop of Southern honey is now arriving freely. We quote: Extracted, 75@80c; orange blossom, 7@7½c; California, 7@7½c. Beeswax scarce at 28@30c.

HILDRETH BROS. & SEGELKEN,
28-30 West Broadway.

KANSAS CITY, June 20.—Very little choice white 1-lb. comb-honey on the market. Comb, 1-lb., 14@15c; 2-lb., 10@12c. Extracted, 6@6½c. Beeswax, 25c.

CLEMONS, MASON & CO.,
Cor. 4th and Walnut Sts.

CINCINNATI, June 20.—Trade good in extracted-honey, with plenty of the new crop in market. New comb-honey is plentiful. We quote: Choice comb, 12@14c. Extracted, 6@8c. Beeswax is in good supply and fair demand at 25@28c for good to choice yellow.

C. F. MUTH & SON,
Corner Freeman & Central Aves.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Demand for comb and extracted honey not very active. We quote: Comb, 12@17c; extracted, 7@8c. Beeswax, 30c.

S. T. FISH & CO., 180 S. Water St.

KANSAS CITY, June 20.—The demand for honey is very light; supply fair, at 12@14c; extracted, 5@7c. The demand for beeswax is good, at 25@27c; supply light.

HAMBLIN & BEARSS, 514 Walnut St.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Not any desirable comb-honey in market. A good article would sell readily at 17c. Extracted is steady at 7@8c for best quality. Beeswax, 28c.

R. A. BURNETT, 161 S. Water St.

BOSTON, June 19.—No change in prices of honey; sales a little slow, on account of extremely low price of maple sugar. White, 1-lb. comb, 18@19c; fair to good, 14@18c; 2-lb. sections, 16@17c. Extracted, selling at 7½@8½c. No beeswax on hand.

BLAKE & RIPLEY, 57 Chatham St.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 19.—Honey market is slow, with little call for comb-honey, as the weather is hot. Extracted, quiet and steady, at 5@8c. Beeswax, in demand at 28c.

H. B. WRIGHT, 326-328 Broadway.

NEW YORK, June 19.—No comb-honey in the market. Extracted—demand light, except for Southern, which would sell easily at 75@80c per gallon for common, and 7½@8c for Florida. Beeswax scarce and firm at 29c.

F. G. STROHMAYER & CO., 122 Water St.

MILWAUKEE, June 20.—Supply of choice comb-honey is very small, and shipments will find a good market. We quote: Choice, 1-lb. sections, 18@20c; common, 10@16c. Extracted, white, in barrels and kegs, 7½@8½c; in tin, 8½@9c. Dark or amber, 6@7c. Beeswax, 26@30c. A. V. BISHOP, 142 W. Water St.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Market almost bare of honey. We quote: Extracted, 5½@6½c. Comb-honey, not enough in market to be quotable. Beeswax scarce; demand fair, at 26@27c.

SCHACHT, LEMCKE & STEINER,
16-18 Drum St.

CHICAGO, June 20.—No choice comb-honey in market. Fancy stock would bring a good price. Beeswax scarce, at 29@30c.

J. A. LAMON, 44-46 S. Water St.

DETROIT, June 20.—No comb-honey in the market. Extracted, 8@9c. Beeswax firm, at 29@30c. M. H. HUNT, Bell Branch, Mich.

Advertisements.*CARNIOLAN!

Lots of Replies.

During the year 1888, we had an advertisement running in the American Bee Journal, and we had the same in several Daily and Weekly papers, but to our surprise we received more than double the number of responses from the advertisement in the American Bee Journal, than from all our others combined.

The fact that we are still receiving letters referring to our advertisement in the Bee Journal, shows that it is preserved and read long after it is received. Newspapers are read and thrown aside and that ends it, but the Bee Journal is preserved, and the advertisements are often noticed and bring responses long after they appeared in it.

We regard the American Bee Journal as a first-class advertising medium.

Advanced Bee-Culture;

It is to take the place of my other book, The Production of Comb-Honey, which will not be republished. Although the new book will contain at least five or six times as much matter as The Production of Comb-Honey, yet the price will be only 50 cents. The book is already partly printed, and will probably be out sometime in April or May. If any of the friends would like to "help me along" in meeting the expenses of getting out the book, they can do so by sending their orders in advance. Such orders will be most thankfully received, and filled the very day the book is out. I will send The Review one year and the book for $1.25. The Review will be sent on receipt of order (I have plenty of back numbers to send it from the beginning of the year) and the book as soon as it is out. Stamps taken, either United States or Canadian.
